Policy Statement:

Verification of enrollment for the semester must be completed by all students by the end of the second Saturday of the sixteen week semester. Students are required to self-certify their enrollment using the School's data management system, SONIS. Students receiving financial aid are required to self-certify prior to any disbursement of financial aid. For those students enrolled in two eight-week courses within the semester, verification of enrollment must be confirmed for BOTH eight-week courses by the second Saturday of the sixteen week semester. This student certification does not preclude instructors from taking class attendance.
